

Although there is no Sinclair station in my area, there are other media conglomerates, such as Clear Channel, whose political agendas are readily apparent and who could, if Sinclair gets away with it, then feel beyond reproach and air their own smear campaigns. Please protect the rights of the American people to "free and fair" elections by keeping tabs on the media.